

WOMEN IN THE U.S. SENATE 1922 - 1999

Nine women serve in the United States Senate in the 106th Congress. The newest member, Blanche Lincoln (D-AR), began her term in January 1999. Other 1998 election winners include: Barbara Mikulski (D-MD, first elected in 1986); Barbara Boxer (D-CA) and Patty Murray (D-WA), elected in 1992. Election winners in 1996 included: Susan Collins (R-ME) and Mary Landrieu (D-LA). In 1994, winners included: Dianne Feinstein (D-CA, first elected in 1992); Kay Bailey Hutchison (R-TX, first elected in 1993); and Olympia Snowe (R-ME, newly elected in 1994).

To date, a total of 27 women have served in the Senate, including sixteen Democrats and eleven Republicans. Of these women, twelve served for less than a year and did not complete full terms, nine completed at least one full term, six have been elected since 1994 and so have not yet had time to complete full terms.

Two states (LA & ME) have sent three women to the Senate; six states (AL, AR, CA, KS, NE, and SD) have been represented twice by women in the Senate; nine other states (FL, GA, IL, MD, MN, ND, OR, TX and WA) have now sent one woman to the Senate each. California was the first state to send two women (Boxer and Feinstein) to the Senate simultaneously; Kansas was the second (Nancy Landon Kassebaum (R) and Sheila Frahm (R)), and Maine is the third (Collins and Snowe).

The first woman to serve in the Senate was Rebecca Latimer Felton (D-GA); appointed in 1922, she served for one day. The first woman elected to the Senate was Hattie Wyatt Caraway (D-AR). She was appointed to fill the vacancy caused by the death of her husband, and was subsequently elected to complete his term; Caraway went on to be elected for two more terms. Margaret Chase Smith (R-ME) was the first woman elected to the Senate without having first been appointed to serve. Smith had first come to Congress when she was elected to fill her deceased husband's House seat; she then went on to be elected to the Senate in her own right. Kassebaum was the first woman to have been elected to the Senate without having previously filled an unexpired Congressional term; Mikulski is the first Democratic woman to do so. Smith was the first woman to serve in both houses of Congress; Mikulski, Boxer, Snowe and Lincoln did so subsequently. Carol Moseley-Braun (D-IL), an African-American, was the first woman of color to serve in the Senate.

Kassebaum chaired the Senate's Labor and Human Resources Committee in the 104th Congress; she was the first woman ever to chair a major Senate committee. Caraway chaired the Senate Committee on Enrolled Bills during the 73rd-78th Congresses.

First Entered Senate through Regular Elections (11)

In 1998, Lincoln, a newcomer, was elected to an open seat, as were Collins and Landrieu in 1996, Snowe in 1994, and two of the women elected in 1992 (Boxer and Murray). Five other women (Paula Hawkins (R-FL), Kassebaum, Mikulski, Moseley-Braun and Smith) entered the Senate by winning regular general elections.

First Entered Senate through Succession to Unexpired Terms (16)

Seven women followed their deceased husbands into the Senate; they were Maryon Pittman Allen (D-AL), Jocelyn Birch Burdick (D-ND), Vera Cahalan Bushfield (R-SD), Hattie Wyatt Caraway (D-AR), Muriel Buck Humphrey (D-MN), Rose McConnell Long (D-LA), and Maurine Brown Neuberger (D-OR). Nine women [Hazel Hempel Abel (R-NE), Eva Kelly Bowring (R-NE), Elaine Schwartzburg Edwards (D-LA), Feinstein, Felton, Frahm, Dixie Bibb Graves (D-AL), Hutchison and Gladys Pyle (R-SD)] served part or all of unexpired terms of senators other than their husbands, including four men who died and four who resigned. Two women held the same seat successively; Abel succeeded Bowring. Two of the women, Edwards and Graves, were appointed by their husbands, who were governors of their states at the time.

Special Elections

Five women joined the Senate as a result of winning special elections to fill unexpired terms: Abel, Feinstein, Hutchison, Neuberger, and Pyle. Neuberger was elected to fill the vacancy and for the ensuing full term. Feinstein completed the unexpired term of Pete Wilson, who resigned when he was elected governor of California; she defeated his appointed successor in a special election and then won re-election to a full term in 1994. Hutchison completed the unexpired term of Lloyd Bentsen, who resigned when he was appointed Secretary of the Treasury; she defeated his appointed successor in a special election, and then won a full term in 1994.

Appointments

Eleven women first entered the Senate as appointees: Allen, Bowring, Burdick, Bushfield, Caraway, Edwards, Felton, Frahm, Graves, Humphrey, Long. Caraway went on to be elected in a special election and then in two general elections; Long was subsequently elected in a special election to complete the term.
